As usual, the doors will open at 9:00 a.m. Here's hoping the weather will cooperate!

We will be having our usual Silent Auction. Please be sure to bring something to sell. The program will be a DVD featuring the collection of the South Western Clock Museum out of California. They have a nice selection of clocks, but no permanent home for their collection as yet. There will be an Executive Meeting following the regular meeting.

Q: What did the digital clock say to his mother?

A: Look ma no hands!

WARNING!! February Meeting is closer than you think as it is February 1. Be aware that it will come up before you get your calendar turned over. We don't want you to miss it!

December Meeting

The December Meeting was well attended. Luckily this year it was not necessary to fight the weather! The Silent Auction was large and seemed to have a lot of interest. Following the Silent Auction, the group got ready for a rousing game of "Christmas Trivia". There was nearly an incident when it appeared that the game cards had been left in Port Franks. Luckily for Gerry's health and well-being, they were located in the Koolen's van and all was well. The teams were ably led by Captains Dave Dazer and Ron Metcalfe. Prizes were awarded to both the winning and losing team.

The pot-luck lunch that followed was very tasty (as usual), with a wide variety of treats. Special thanks to the members of the Executive who cooked the turkeys and the ham! Special thanks also to the hard-working ladies who set the table, set up the buffet and cleaned up afterwards. We would be lost without you!

Reminders:

- Clock Classes starting soon. Contact Mark Loates for information.
- Don't forget to get your items ready for the Crafts Contest. They must be pre-registered with Rick Robinson. Judging will be during the March 29th Meeting.
- The next meeting is March 29 NOT April 5th as it would normally be because that is Easter. As this is the 5th Sunday in the Month of March, it is unlikely to conflict with other chapter's meetings.
- I know it is still snowing and blowing out, but the June Auction will be coming up faster than you realize. Please start thinking about what you would like to put into the auction. We will have a serve yourself brunch again this year as that has worked very well! This year we will include sandwiches in the offerings by popular request.
